MALE DISPOSABILITY...

*it's neither a myth
nor just an argument against feminism and it's never used to play the victim game!*

Simple, it demands honesty in abundance even to admit that Male Disposability does exist...

FROM THE DESK OF EDITOR

Main Attractions

The men's HUB was an initiative to publish experience by common men, the objective will continue as main attractions of the magazine. Articles shared by various readers as well as professional authors will be published, language can be either hindi or english. The articles can cover any recent incident event or experience of the readers. Although we are morally bound to stay with our main objective but to cover more areas we ourselves limit to number of articles or number of pages. In any edition we limit ourselves to cover 3 to 4 articles in max 20 pages.

Keshav & Sharma

Keshav & Sharma is a cartoon series originally started by Daaman Welfare Society with the help of Volunteers. Mr. Diljeet & Mr. Anupam Dubey are main artists of the series and the scripts are written by volunteers. Keshav & Sharma are two main characters representing our society's bias against men. There are many more characters with these two leading characters. Every issue now onward will cover at least 2 scripts and 1 graphic representation of Keshav & Sharma.

Men's Panchtantra

The section is newly introduced section. In this section volunteers will try to raise men's issues they face in daily life with the help of animals. Animals will be used as representatives. Every issue will cover at least one of such stories.

An Important Person

The section will cover a special person irrespective of male or female working in society for the betterment of Men or he can be just a normal man well aware of issues faced by men in daily life. The current issue is covering Mr. Upendra Dhull

Special Coverage

This section is introductory section to tell about something special. The section will be in slides format and will cover important points in brief, we won't go into detail but we will try to cover the important facts about the topic and also we will try to speak about the source of the fact. SC dismisses plea to make rape law (Sec 375 IPC) gender neutral

November 13, 2018

Supreme Court dismissed a plea by NGO Criminal Justice Society of India to make rape law [Section 375 IPC] gender neutral, reported Live Law.

"The issue is entirely in Parliament's domain", said the bench.

The petition moved by 'Criminal Justice Society of India' said Section 375 IPC be declared violative of Articles 14, 15 and 21 of Constitution of India insofar the definition of rape does not account for gender-neutrality.

Noted Criminal Lawyer Senior Advocate KTS Tulsi is the President of the petitioner Organisation.

The petition relied heavily on the three recent landmark judgments on the apex court in National Legal Services Authority v. Union of India & Ors; Justice K.S. Puttaswamy v. Union of India & Ors and Navtej Singh Johar v. Union of India & Ors to seek gender-neutral rape laws.

Absolutely no time bar for reporting crimes under POCSO Act

October 18, 2018

The Law Ministry concurred with the opinion of the Ministry of Women and Child Development that unlike the Code of Criminal Proceedings (CrPC), the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act (POCSO), 2012, does not lay down a time limit for reporting crimes covered under it. "The Ministry of Law, after examining the provisions of POCSO Act vis-à-vis provisions of CrPC, has advised that there appears no period of limitation mentioned in Section 19 in regard to reporting of the offences under the POCSO Act, 2012," according to a statement.

Section 19 of the POCSO Act, which deals with sexual crimes against children, lays down the procedure for reporting a crime but doesn't specify a time limit or statute of limitation for reporting it.

Whereas the CrPC lays down different time-limits for crimes which carry a punishment of up to three years, there is no time bar for crimes that would attract a jail term of more than three years.

Extramarital affair: HC says won't interfere

October 6, 2018

Hon'ble Apex Court, while deciding a case titled 'Patangrao Kadam Vs. Prithviraj S Deshmukh', has very precisely stated that, "When there is an ambiguity in terms of a provision, one must look at well-settled principles of construction but it is not open to first to create an ambiguity which does not exist and then try to resolve the same by taking recourse to some general principle"

But today, Hon'ble High Court in Lucknow had a somewhat uncomfortable situation and finally had to say, "This cannot be allowed in Indian society..."

Isn't this Hon'ble Supreme Court's contempt?

The Lucknow bench of Allahabad high court on Friday refused to issue direction to state authorities to permit a married woman from Bahraich to live with a man who is not her husband. The woman wanted a direction from the court that the police should not interfere in their life on the complaint of her husband, reported Times of India.

Reluctant to issue any such direction, a bench of Justice Ajai Lamba and Justice Dinesh Kumar Singh said: " We find no reason in equity to issue any direction, in the facts and circumstances of the case."

The wife Gayatriya alias Sangeeta had moved court along with one Heera Lal alias Jhurra against her husband Sitaram and state as well as police authorities seeking interference of the court that it should direct the local police not to interfere in their peaceful life in connection with a non-cognizance report (NCR) lodge by the husband with Kotwali Dehat police station in Bahraich on July 25, 2018.

Opposing the wife's plea, additional government advocate submitted that the wife escaped with Heera Lal on July 20, 2018 along with her two-year-old baby, leaving behind her another seven-year-old son with the husband.

She started living with another person as his wife without getting divorce from her husband.

"This cannot be allowed in Indian society and it is also an offence under Section 498 of IPC. The husband rightly reported the matter to the police which would act as per law," the government counsel said.

Accepting the plea, the court refused to give any relief to the woman.

Laws made ostensibly to protect women, have turned out in practice to be often weapons in the hands of estranged vindictive wives

December 31, 2018

I would ordinarily have supported it, as I regard triple talaq an inhuman practice, and have said so many times. Despite the Supreme Court judgment in Shayara Bano vs Union of India declaring it illegal the practice has continued, and so it was necessary to take strong steps to stamp it out.

However, my apprehension is this : many laws, e.g. section 498A IPC and Prevention of Domestic Violence Act, which were made ostensibly to protect women, have turned out in practice to be often weapons in the hands of estranged vindictive wives to blackmail and harrass their husbands, with the cases often lingering for years, and police sometimes demanding bribes. This has often caused enormous suffering to husbands.

The triple talaq Bill makes the offence of pronouncing triple talaq punishable by 3 years imprisonment and a fine. It has been made a cognizable offence, which means a policeman can arrest without a warrant from a magistrate. Section 7(c) of the Bill says that a magistrate can grant bail after hearing the wife if ' he finds reasonable ground to do so '. In other words, the magistrate is not bound to grant bail.

Suppose there is an estranged Muslim wife. She may turn vindictive, and file a police report falsely alleging that her husband pronounced triple talaq when in fact he did not do so. The police may come to arrest the husband and demand bribe, and arrest the husband if he does not pay it. Though there is a provision enabling the magistrate to grant bail to the husband, that is discretionary, and he is not bound to grant it. Moreover, it can be granted only after hearing the wife, which is bound to take many days, and in the meantime the husband will have to remain in jail, even if he is later released on bail. Though there is a provision in the Bill enabling the wife to withdraw her complaint, she may blackmail her husband, demanding a huge sum of money for doing so.

Woman burns minor boy's genitals with hot tongs after he refused sex

October 10, 2018

A Greater Noida woman was booked after she allegedly confined a 13-year-old boy to her home and hurt his genitals with hot tongs for resisting her sexual advances, reported Zee News.

The incident was reported from Chapraula village under Badalpur police station limits, they said, adding that the woman is absconding after the incident.

According to the mother of the 13-year-old boy, the accused woman is from their neighbourhood and had allegedly made sexual advances, a police official said.

"The married woman, apparently in her late 20s, had lured the boy to her house in the afternoon last Friday when she was alone there," the official said. He said a complaint in this regard was filed Tuesday and an FIR registered under Indian Penal Code sections 323 (voluntarily causing hurt), 324 (causing hurt with a weapon), 342 (wrongful confinement), 363 (kidnapping), 506 (criminal intimidation).

The accused woman, who is absconding, has also been booked under the provisions of the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act, the official said. "The police are investigating the matter from all angles. The delay in approaching the police in the matter leaves several questions unanswered," he said.

30 years after consensual teenage sex, man cleared of rape charges

October 17, 2018

In a rape case that took 30 years to reach a conclusion, a 46-year-old man has been exonerated after a sessions court found that he had consensual sex as a 16-year-old with the then 17-year-old girl. The court found that as per IPC section 376 (rape) and in its applicability in 1988, consensual sex with a girl above 16 years was excluded from the definition of rape, reported Times of India.

"By no stretch of imagination can it be said that the accused of age 16 years enticed the girl of age 17 years from the legal custody of her parents and committed rape on her. No purpose would be served in committing the case before the juvenile board on the ground of age of the accused," the sessions court said while allowing his discharge plea. The man who had moved to Gujarat had to come back to the city to face legal proceedings. He had been booked on charges of rape and kidnapping with an intention to compel a woman to marry or have sexual relations.

The case was registered by the girl's father in 1988 after he found out about their relationship. The girl's parents used to go to work and it was alleged that on January 23, 1988, when the father reached home, none of the family members were present in the house. He then began to frantically look for his daughter. It was alleged that later he got to know that the accused, who was their neighbour earlier, might have enticed her.

The father then lodged a police report against the accused. He informed the cops that on January 30, 1988, while looking for his daughter, he went to the house of the accused in Andheria and found her there.

He said that he then brought her to the police station.

The woman, however, told the cops that on January 23, 1988, at about 7pm she went with the accused. He then talked to her "sweetly" and took her to his native place in Gujarat. She said that they had consensual sex there. Referring to the woman's statement the sessions court held that it appeared that she had consented.

Women lure wealthy men; make porn films at gunpoint for ransom

October 3, 2018

Four women and three men were booked by Sambhal Police on Sunday for allegedly extorting money out of wealthy men after indulging them into pornography. The racket was busted after a local jeweller, one of the victims, filed a police complaint against the gang, leading to the arrest of all seven, reported Times Now.

The victim alleged that he was tempted by one of the women to pay her a visit at her house where three other members of the gang were already present. He was then forced to take off his clothes by the accused and was filmed naked with the woman. He was later threatened to pay a hefty sum of Rs 10 lakh by the means of the recorded video.

Pankaj Pandey, Additional Superintendent of Police (ASP) told TOI that the victim had to ask for the money from his elder brother, with whom he shared the narrative of being blackmailed. The brother, in turn, informed the police which led to the subsequent arrest of the accused.

Identified as Saima Ahmed, her brother Faizan Ahmed, Mina Devi, Anjali Rastogi, Sunita Singh, Fazil Hamid and Vishal Chauhan, two knives, one pistol with two live cartridges, two motorbikes and mobile phones were confiscated from their possession by the police.

The ASP further said that the accused are being interrogated about other victims from whom they may have been extorting money. He added that their modus operandi suggests that they are a gang of professional criminals. A similar gang operating in Aligarh was earlier arrested.

An FIR was registered against the seven under Indian Penal Code's Sections 506 for criminal intimidation, 411 for dishonestly receiving property that has been stolen, 392 for robbery, 386, 385 and 384 for extortion by putting the victim in fear of death or grievous hurt/ injury.

Sexual victimization by Women is more common than previously known

Sep 24, 2018

Take a moment and picture an image of a rapist. Without a doubt, you are thinking about a man. Given our pervasive cultural understanding that perpetrators of sexual violence are nearly always men, this makes sense. But this assumption belies the reality, revealed in our study of large-scale federal agency surveys, that women are also often perpetrators of sexual victimization.

In 2014, we published a study on the sexual victimization of men, finding that men were much more likely to be victims of sexual abuse than was thought. To understand who was committing the abuse, we next analyzed four surveys conducted by the Bureau of Justice Statistics (BJS) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) to glean an overall picture of how frequently women were committing sexual victimization.

The results were surprising. For example, the CDC's nationally representative data revealed that over one year, men and women were equally likely to experience nonconsensual sex, and most male victims reported female perpetrators. Over their lifetime, 79 percent of men who were "made to penetrate" someone else (a form of rape, in the view of most researchers) reported female perpetrators. Likewise, most men who experienced sexual coercion and unwanted sexual contact had female perpetrators.

We also pooled four years of the National Crime Victimization Survey (NCVS) data and found that 35 percent of male victims who experienced rape or sexual assault reported at least one female perpetrator. Among those who were raped or sexually assaulted by a woman, 58 percent of male victims and 41 percent of female victims reported that the incident involved a violent attack, meaning the female perpetrator hit, knocked down or otherwise attacked the victim, many of whom reported injuries.

And, because we had previously shown that nearly one million incidents of sexual victimization happen in our nation's prisons and jails each year, we knew that no analysis of sexual victimization in the U.S. would be complete without a look at sexual abuse happening behind bars. We found that, contrary to assumptions, the biggest threat to women serving time does not come from male corrections staff. Instead, female victims are more than three times as likely to experience sexual abuse by other women inmates than by male staff.

Also surprisingly, women inmates are more likely to be abused by other inmates than are male inmates, disrupting the long held view that sexual violence in prison is mainly about men assaulting men. In juvenile corrections facilities, female staff are also a much more significant threat than male staff; more than nine in ten juveniles who reported staff sexual victimization were abused by a woman.

Our findings might be critically viewed as an effort to upend a women's rights agenda that focuses on the sexual threat posed by men. To the contrary, we argue that male-perpetrated sexual victimization remains a chronic problem, from the schoolyard to the White House. In fact, 96 percent of women who report rape or sexual assault in the NCVS were abused by men. In presenting our findings, we argue that a comprehensive look at sexual victimization, which includes male perpetration and adds female perpetration, is consistent with feminist principles in important ways.

For example, the common one-dimensional portrayal of women as harmless victims reinforces outdated gender stereotypes. This keeps us from seeing women as complex human beings, able to wield power, even in misguided or violent ways. And, the assumption that men are always perpetrators and never victims reinforces unhealthy ideas about men and their supposed invincibility. These hyper-masculine ideals can reinforce aggressive male attitudes and, at the same time, callously stereotype male victims of sexual abuse as "failed men."

Other gender stereotypes prevent effective responses, such as the trope that men are sexually insatiable. Aware of the popular misconception that, for men, all sex is welcome, male victims often feel too embarrassed to report sexual victimization. If they do report it, they are frequently met with a response that assumes no real harm was done.

Women abused by other women are also an overlooked group; these victims discover that most services are designed for women victimized by men. Behind bars, we found that sexual minorities were 2-3 times more likely to be sexually victimized by staff members than straight inmates. This is particularly alarming as our related research found that sexual minorities, especially lesbian and bisexual women, are much more likely to be incarcerated to begin with.

In addition to the risk faced by sexual minorities, the U.S. disproportionately incarcerates people who are black, Latino/a, low-income, or mentally ill, putting these populations at risk of abuse. Detained juveniles experience particularly high rates of sexual victimization, and young people outside of the system are also at risk. A recent study of youth found, strikingly, that females comprise 48 percent of those who self-reported committing rape or attempted rape at age 18-19.

Professionals in mental health, social work, public health, and criminal justice often downplay female perpetration. But in fact, victims of female-perpetrated sexual violence suffer emotional and psychological harm, just like victims of male-perpetrated abuse. And when professionals fail to take victimization by women seriously, this only compounds victims' suffering by minimizing the harm they experience.

Researchers also find that female perpetrators have often been previously sexually victimized themselves. Women who commit sexual victimization are more likely to have an extensive history of sexual abuse, with more perpetrators and at earlier ages than those who commit other crimes. Some women commit sexual victimization alongside abusive male co-perpetrators. These patterns of gender-based violence must be understood in order to reach the troubled women who harm others.

To thoroughly dismantle sexual victimization, we must grapple with its many complexities, which requires attention to all victims and perpetrators, regardless of their sex. This inclusive framing need not and should not come at the expense of gender-sensitive approaches, which take into account the ways in which gender norms influence women and men in different or disproportionate ways.

Male-perpetrated sexual victimization finally came to public attention after centuries of denial and indifference, thanks to women's rights advocates and the anti-rape movement. Attention to sexual victimization perpetrated by women should be understood as a necessary next step in continuing and expanding upon this important legacy.

Daaman Welfare Society (Regd.)

Daaman Activities

For Daaman, 2018 has been a great year of learning and growing. We sincerely thank everyone for being a part of our journey. In 2018, there were times when your love and support kept us going and were a cure for our heart & mind which was very much needed for us to continue!

Continuing our mission to help men and educate society to understand the basics of gender-neutral society in order to bring harmony in families and to safeguard the social fabric, Daaman, along with Amar Ujala Foundation, organized a Drawing Competition on the occasion of Children's Day, at Pre-Secondary School, Katra Shankarpur Sarain, Kanpur, wherein school children of class 6th, 7th and 8th participate!

Since the occasion was of Children's Day, we made special arrangements so that children enjoyed the party that was organized for them with their favorite 'Ice Cream'!

Then came the occasion of International Men's Day, a day dedicated to recognize the contribution of men in society! We too celebrated and spread awareness about the sacrifices of men in the role of a father, a brother, a son, a husband, friend apart from any other such role in lives which are underrated and the society has ignored to acknowledge.

Daaman organized an awareness campaign in Kanpur on the occasion to celebrate the contribution of Men in society.

The day was marked with the huge presence of men's rights activists and the public at large carrying out the awareness campaign on rising male suicides, need of a national commission for men welfare and also raises voice against the #DigitalMobLynching in the name of #MeToo India movement.

In the evening team Daaman joined late Manuj's family for the inauguration of a book on Manuj's life!

Daaman participated in 549th Guru Nanak Gurburab or Guru Nanak Jayanti celebrations in Moti Jheel, Kanpur on Kartik Purnima, i.e. 23/11/2018. The Sikh festival marks the birth of the first Sikh Guru, Guru Nanak, who laid the foundation of Sikhism.

Guru Nanak Jayanti, also called Guru Nanak's Prakash Utsav, is a reminder for the devotees to follow his teachings and devote their lives to the selfless service of God and humanity.

Participating in such social and religious occasions provides people present there an opportunity to open up and share their pains with us, which they otherwise are not allowed and are made to suffer.

It was an honor to have Sh. Satish Mahana, Minister of Industrial Development in the Government of Uttar Pradesh on our stall, later, Sri. Vijay Vishwas Pant, District Magistrate, Kanpur Nagar also visited our stall and appreciated our movement and our efforts for the cause.

In 2019 too Daaman will take our efforts further to strengthen our fight against prevailing gender bias against Men.

Expendable Men

I remember an incident from my past, not decades passed but just 3 or 4 years. In my office one new young handsome boy joined. In the same batch a girl also joined. In couple of months boy and girl comes close. They spend a lot of time together in canteen or after office. This continue for around 1 year. One day both choose their own path. It was not a fight which people notice but it was an observation that now both are not spending time together. I was not friendly with both of them, but one of my friend was. My friend asked the boy why they are not together anymore, and he passed the information to us during tea time. Now the boy told him that it is not his choice but girl is not with him anymore. The girl find a new guy in a big city (compare to our city, let say the big city is Delhi). And new guy is working in another company at higher pay scale and living in Delhi. So the girl and new guy are dating on mobile now a days, and he is out. This part is ok no issue at all, but the boy also added that he is still willing to join the girl. This added part shows how disprate the boy is, yes many will say he is in love bla bla blabut in my view it's just wastage of life and time.

Anyway I will be back on story after sometime. Now look at the image in the begning of article, lovely image (source : wikipedia) !! What this image is about ?

One can say in the image one lady giving something to a boy, probably a flower and her friends are there to cheer. So it looks like a proposing situation ?

But actually the image is not about love or proposing but it is about a group of womens who are telling this men that 'YOU ARE COWARD'.

Surpriced ?

The image is showing a band of women who roamed cities of England during Word War I, and giving white feathers to men in civil dress. Basically this group of women telling men that if you are not in army you are coward. Media will say a band of brave women roaming around cities to inspire men to join army. Is this true ?

The White Feather was given to men who were not enlisted in the army as a mark of cowardice. If you are not fighting in the war, you are not a real man.

I disagree with media.

Another incident :

Anyone heard about a beave men 'Austin Hemmings' ?

Yes

So Who was Austin Hemmings ?

Some of us may not be familier with the name but many of us will identify him as a brave men who lost his life protecting an unknown women. He has an intresting story of bravery. Let us read his story (source wikipedia).

In 2008, a 26 year-old Auckland woman was approached by a man whom she recognised as her cousin. The man got confrontational, looked aggressive and the woman started to feel afraid. Out of the corner of her eyes, she saw Austin, whom she never met before.

She asked for his help. Austin obliged and stood between them, asking "what's going on here?"

The man replied, "get out of the way, it's none of your business."

But Austin stood his ground. He then asked the woman to "run" before he was stabbed to his death by the man.

The media proclaimed that he "did the right thing."

Here the man is dead to protect an unknown woman and media said he did the right thing. Now just for a moment imagine that the man 'Austin' did not jump in between man and unknown woman, in that case Austin may be living today and unknown woman may not be. If this happened what media will say the man did wrong thing ?

Another incident :

In 2012, James Holmes entered a movie theatre in Aurora, Colorado, and set off tear gas grenades and shot into the audience with multiple firearms. Out of the death casualties, 3 of them were men who jumped in front of their girlfriends and literally used their body as shields against the incoming bullets.

All these are real incidents.

Many say Literature/Cinema is mirror of our society so what cinema shows about men. If we look at our movies, men die like flies. But I can not remember a single movie in which women die like flies.

Just for example KILL BILL Vol 1 : Massacre of 88 Men. Kill Bill Vol I is all about killing a man but main fight is how a woman massacre 88 men. And the fight seen was really great one and we watched it without blinking.

Just imagine the reverse where a men kill 88 women. Although I can not remember a single movie where such thing was shows, even if such movie was made the men will be shows as villain and he deserve a painfull death.

Another incident : real as well as cinema

Titanic Tragedy. The tragedy is sad one, and movie based on the tragedy was a great success at box office. What I remember from the story line of the movie is how a men choose to die to protect a women. Hero die and actress was saved. We call it a great sacrificise by the men. Was it ? Now if we look at the survival rate of same tragedy :

Men – 20%

Women – 74 %

Children – 52 %

The statastic prove that most of men did not survived and most of women survived. This happen because we assume women & chidren should be saved before men. That also mean we give more importance to the life of women and childrens.

I can remember a less known story from India, after earth quake three bodies found inside a house where men was covering the women and child. Although men, women and child all died but truth is before death men tried to save women and child.

I can list down a lot of real life stories when men choose to die at place of women. I can list down a large number of stories where men suffer at place of women. I can list down a large number of phone calls where men call and ask us how to secure a bail for parents specially mother. He most time ready to go jain but he wanted to save parents specially Mother.

Bitter Truth is I can not remember many incidents where women suffer to protect men.

It is not because we are supermen and we are brave enough to choose death at place of Life. But This is because we men care about out near and dears.

In return we were informed that

- All Men are potential Rapist
- Men are Rejected Maal

- Men Can Not be family Head
- Men Comes Last when it comes to Medical Emergency
- A woman needs a man like a fish needs a bicycle
- Women need men only for babies
- etc

Who is telling us this ?

Men Himself ?

Yes Men himself is responsible for all this shit.

How ?

Let me complete the story i started in the begning.

So the boy said he is still willing to join the girl if she wish. Some people will say he is in love, but I won't say same. I would say he himself is not caring about his life. What happened next ? For next few days both the boy & the girl stay far from each other then one day both comes together again. This time we came to know that the girl rejected the big city boy because of xyz reason and join the old boy again. After few month both get married.

Is this marriage is a wrong decesion ?

I don't know but truth is for girl it was not about boy, she tried her all options first, when none of them worked she came back to old boy again. What she did was not wrong because she think about her life and choose what was best available. Although the boy was never her first choice but she choose what was best available to her. At the same time the boy never look for best available options. When she left him, he was ready to take her back, and when she come back he accepted her proposal and get married. The boy may or may not get better option but he never tried he stayed with the same girl even when she rejected him.

So who is responsible for men ?

The men himself, who born not for himself but for others. For men his own life must comes first but they do not choose themself first, they keep themself last and men himself is responsible for this shit.

Now let us see a few recors :

- 97% of combat fatalities are men
- 92% of occupational deaths are men
- 76% of homicides are men
- 3 time more suicide by men then women.
- About male rape no data available in India
- About 140,000 rape cases in US prisons alone.
- 66% of all victims of robberies and non-domestic aggravated assault are men
- More men are homeless then women.
- In USA women cancer get almost 15 times more funds then women.
- In India too lot of attention of breast cancer but for men's cancer nothing.

So what is the moral of the story(s)?

MEN ARE EXPENDABLES

A man's life is not regarded at the same value as a woman's. Men were expendables a hundred years ago. Men are still expendables today. Men even think about themselves as EXPENDABLES.

#NOTA

Dr. G.Singh

#NOTA – None Of The Above

Election is most important festival of loktantra. We elect our representative via elections. But the issue is we are forced to choose out of a list. Although anyone can be the part of list if he or she wish but practically it is not true. Practically we are forced to choose one candidate out of available list. But this is not true anymore. Now we have NOTA for elections.

Nota is available from past few elections but it is in discussion after recent election in five states including Rajasthan and M.P. Now a days NOTA is in almost every discussion. Why? The reason behind discussion is the vote difference between elected candidates and 2nd candidate was such low that nota votes exceed the difference. After so much discussion an obvious question is what is NOTA and more important why and how it can be used.

NOTA is short of 'None Of The Above' and it is an additional option to choose in ballot paper or EVM machine. That means if in an election suppose 4 candidate contesting then EVM machine or ballot paper will be having 5 option to elect. And voter can elect nota to say all candidate appearing for election are not suitable as per his/her opinion. In other words we can say NOTA is a virtual candidate in election.

If NOTA is a candidate it may possible that he get majority. What if NOTA get majority? Who will be the elected candidate on that seat? A virtual candidate can not be declared winner then what will happen?

What happen if NOTA get majority votes is mainly decided by the rules and regulations of election/country. There can be many possibilities just for example at the particular seat election can be declared void and reelection can be done. It is also possible that the candidate with next majority is declared winner. Some other possibilities are also possible but it mainly depends on country/organization.

What happen in India ?

Here in India NOTA Votes are counted as INVALID votes so they can not change the result. In other words we can say even if NOTA get majority votes still next candidate will be declared winner. That means NOTA votes are equal to NO-VOTE. But is that true ?

First let us see a little history of NOTA here in India.

The Election Commission of India told the Supreme Court in 2009 that it wished to offer the voter a "none of the above" option on ballots, which the government had generally opposed. The 'People's Union for Civil Liberties', a NGO (non-governmental organisation), filed a PIL (public-interest litigation) statement in support of this.

On 27 September 2013, the Supreme Court of India ruled that the right to register a "none of the above" vote in elections should apply, and ordered the Election Commission to provide such a button in the electronic voting machines, noting that it would increase participation.

The Election Commission also clarified that even though votes cast as NOTA are counted, they are considered as invalid votes so they will not change the outcome of the election process. They are not taken into account for calculating the total valid votes and will not be considered for determining the forfeiture of deposit.

In the 2014 general election, NOTA polled 1.1% of the votes, counting to over 6,000,000. The specific symbol for NOTA, a ballot paper with a black cross across it, was introduced on 18 September 2015.

Now the question is if NOTA votes are just invalid votes these votes are useless and how it can help us. The recent election show the importance of NOTA votes. How ?

First let us see the incidents just before the elction. In one of important ruling SC of india give guidelines tried protect human right violations and to stop misuse of SC/ST Act. In oposition a lot of violation and protest happened. Here the duty of govt was to protect Human Right Violations and control the violance. But what govt see was vote bank and they decided to change the ruling given by SC of India and they passed a bill and changed the rulling. In other words we can say they govt decided to go with the vote bank at place of protecting Human Rights and they devided the society into two parts, one whose human rights get violated and second who could violate the human rights of first. It happen because 2nd group presented them as vote bank.

Recent election give a chance to the 1st group to present them as vote bank. The 1st group was having two options either they could choose another party candidate or they could choose not to vote. But they choose NOTA to show their disagreement with present government. And result was amazing they voted for NOTA and they were able to present themselves as vote bank. Present govt already aware of vote bank and use of NOTA was sufficient to tell govt that thay can not ignore the 1st group anymore. Result just after election govt decided to go with the wind and the declared 10% reservation to 1st group.

The incident is not about to show what was lost and what was the gain but to show the power of votebank, and more it is about NOTA how it can be used as vote bank.

Can Men's Right Activist use NOTA as vote bank ?

Yes they can. They need to come together and show them as a vote bank.

Are we ready for the same ?

2019 Election will decide if we are ready to be vote bank or not.

Anti Male Society

Mr. Vinay

Once upon a time, there was a kingdom, and a queen

Let us come out of story mode and stay with truth. So what I was saying we grow up by reading or listening many stories about warriors. We read about many like tatyatope, jhansi ki rani, mangal pandey, bhagat singh, subhash etc. The list is very very long, but today I want to remember one and only one jhansi ki rani, laxmi bai. We read about her in many ways including a poem written by Subhadra Kumari Chauhan (khoob ladi mardani who to jhansi wali rani thi I believe this poem is great inspiration for many. Laxmi Bai was one of the great & unique warrior not because she was a woman, but because she fought at the time when fight for freedom was in initial stage. Very few fought for freedom at that time. In due time story of jhansi ki rani must have inspired many to fight for freedom. I believe our ideals like bhagat singh, chadrashekhar were also get inspiration from laxmi bai.

Unfortunately soon this inspiration may die, maybe many stay with the inspiration mood but my personal view is the story of Jhansi ki Rani may not be inspiring soon. Why I am saying so?

So far Laxmi Bai was a great warrior of our freedom fight. But soon we are going to see the feminist version of Laxmi Bai. Where her main fight is against her EVIL Husband. That means a great freedom fighter soon going to convert into gender warrior. The war against gender was nowhere involved in our freedom fight but soon we are going to see a gender war at place of freedom fight under the shadow of 1857 war. As a result inspirational part is no more going to inspire.

What I am saying is based on the trailer on TV.

There are very few women involved in freedom fight (compare to men, that may be because of many reason), whatever little they have soon going to convert into gender warriors starting with Laxmi Bai.

She is well known for her fight against english rulers not for any other fight. The only part where we get inspired was her fight against english ruler. Now if she turned into gender warrior what will be left for inspiration ?

We choose our ideals based on chracter. Look at subhash chandra boss or bhagat singh or chandra shekhar aazad all having one common property and that is respect of women. When men define society they choose harmony and respect for oposite gender is choosen as a best chracter. But when feminist define society they choose their ideal based on 'WAR AGAINST GENDER'. Feminists are choosing their ideals based on EVIL of oposite gender.

Once Laxmi Bai join feminist brigade she will be a warrior agains men, so how I can get inspiration from a warrior who is portraid as fighter against my own gender ?

Many will say I should not choose ideal based on gender but I should choose an ideal based on her fight against EVIL. I would like to ask a simple question for what Jhansi ki Rani was known ?

Hope my point is very clear.

Why society accept such evil stories ?

Many may not agree with my views but my view is our society is mainly Anti-Male-Society and they want to defame men. Society is too much Anti Male that they are ready to see a 'Potential Rapist in Every Men' but they deny the existence of 'Potential Prostitute' in every women. Men normly stay against men till he become the target of war against men.

I can remember a men who lead the crowd to make more stricker rape law. Once done he himself become the target and he committied suicide. A large number of men become target in war against men, a few of them wakeup and fight for their right, a large number commite suicide and bigger part stay tuned on old frequencies. This bigger part believe the world has just few bad women and he was unlucky rest all women are angels.

A small part of target wake up they know that they become target because they had avoided and lost their rights in past, and it will continue till someone rise the voice.

I can count on two recent examples to show the anti male society. First one is matter of Tripple Talak. SC declared TTT as unconstitutional and make in void. That means if a muslim men utter a word 'Talak' three times, marriage won't be declared divorced. But govt took the step to next level they decided to punish men for this uttering word. If a muslim men utter (or not because it is matter of trail) talak three times govt wanted to throw him behind bar till And best part is society want this anti male bill to be passed. One of my friend (not muslim) he argu that what if someone divorce your daughter ? I want to ask why indian men hate their son so much that they openly demand to send their SON behind bar.

Second example I would like to use Tej Pratap Yadav's. He was forced into unwilling marriage at the name of family status. And this is not uncommon. There are many cases where men are kidnaped and they become victim of forced marriage. And we are not even talking of the forced marriages in Bihar where men are kidnapped at gun point by families of young women. 3,400 men were forced in such forced married 2017. Pressuring sons to get married is no less than kidnapping at gunpoint. Any noone talk about this.

The exact form of anti male societ can be easily seen in court rooms. We can see a lot of judgments they are not just to serve justice but they are because people sitting inside court rooms are anti male. A few examples :

- In one of judgment court said men has to pay to wife even if he need to steal or bag. They dont want to say women that they are able and they can earn themself, but court force women to sit and men to pay for their lazyness.
- When adultry was put in front of court so that it can be changed to punish women equally for the adultry. Court they just vanish the law itself because it was time to punish women.
- There is a case where court forced a differently abled men to pay to his abled wife and husband collected this amount by asking donation from other peoples so that he can come out of dead marriage as well as continuous hrashment.

There are uncountable judgments where men was punished for no reason. In short we can say indian society is anti male they hate their own son and they want to punish them for no reason.

Finally I have a message for all Indian Men 'It is not necessary that someone wake you with a Slap, wake up as soon as possible'.

Life is Not Easy

शर्मा : कैसे हैं केशव जी

केशव : नमस्कार शर्मा जी मैं अच्छा हूँ आप अपनी सुनाइए

शर्मा : मैं भी अच्छा हूँ

केशव : आइये कुछ देर शतरंज खेली जाये

शर्मा : नहीं केशव जी आज वक़्त नहीं है

केशव : कुछ जरूरी काम से जा रहे थे शायद

शर्मा : जी है अपने दोस्त मुन्ना के पास चलना है आप भी क्यों नहीं चलते

केशव : मुन्ना वही न जो अपने साथ कॉलेज मैं था

शर्मा : जी हाँ वही

केशव : उनके यहां पर क्या है आज

शर्मा : उनके पुत्र एवं पुत्रवधु ने आत्महत्या कर ली है

केशव : हाँ मुझे पता चला थे और मैं पिछले महीने ही जा आया था

शर्मा : अच्छा मुझे कल ही पता चला

केशव : आपको भी ले जाना चाहता था परन्तु पर आप उस वक़्त शहर से बाहर थे

शर्मा : क्या आपको पता है उन दोनों ने आत्महत्या क्यों की

केशव : संसार मैं रहने के लिए उन दोनों को तयार नहीं किया गया था

शर्मा : क्या बात करते हैं केशव जी

केशव : सही कह रहा हूँ

शर्मा : जहां तक मुझे पता है मुन्ना का लड़का तो शरीफ और पड़ा लिखा था

केशव : जी हाँ

शर्मा : उसकी पत्नी भी अच्छी और पढ़ी लिखी थी

केशव : जी हाँ परन्तु शरीफ और पढ़ा लिखा होना ही तो काफी नहीं है

शर्मा : लड़का तो अच्छे नौकरी कर रहा था न अमेरिका में

केशव : जी हाँ

शर्मा : उसकी कमाई तो सुना है बहुत अच्छी थी

केशव : जी हाँ

शर्मा : तो आप किस कमी की बात कर रहे है केशव जी

केशव : शर्मा जी आपको याद है मुन्ना ने अपने बच्चों को किस तरह से पाला था

शर्मा : जी हाँ मेरे विचार से उसने अपने बच्चों को बहुत ही बढ़िया तरीके से पाला था हर सुविधा जो मिल सकती थी उसे दी थी मुन्ना ने

केशव : बिलकुल सही और लड़के के बारे में आपका क्या ख्याल है

शर्मा : लड़का भी अच्छा था बहुत पढ़ता था हर बार क्लास में टॉप करता था और आज तक उसकी कम्प्लेन सुनने को नहीं मिली

केशव : लड़का अपने मोहले में बड़ा हुआ था आपने लड़के को देखा या मुलाकात होती रही होगी

शर्मा : ज्यादा तो नहीं पर मुलाकात तो हुई ही थी अक्सर लड़का पढ़ने में ज्यादा बिजी रहता था इसीलिए दिखाई नहीं देता था

केशव : कभी किसी बिल भरने की लाइन में या राशन की दुकान पर या रेलवे स्टेशन पर मुलाकात हुई हो

शर्मा : जी हाँ मुलाकात तो हुई ही थी पर ज्यादा नहीं

केशव : बिलकुल और मेरे विचार से समस्या यही से शुरू हुई

शर्मा : इसमें क्या समस्या है

केशव : देखिये आपने खुद खा की लड़के को हर सुविधा मिलती थी उससे कोई मुश्किल या आसान काम नहीं लिया जाता था बस वह पढ़ता रहता था |

शर्मा : जी हाँ

केशव : इसका मतलब लड़के को मुश्किल काम के लिए तयार ही नहीं किया गया था

शर्मा : कैसा मुश्किल काम

केशव : शर्मा जी जिंदगी आसान नहीं है इसमें कई परेशानियां है अगर आदमी उसके लिए तयार न हो तो डिप्रेशन में जा सकता है

शर्मा : क्या कुछ उद्घरण देकर समझा सकेंगे

केशव : मुन्ना का लड़का एक्साम्प्ले है न

शर्मा : कैसे

केशव : देखिये मुन्ना के लड़के ने पढ़ाई अच्छे तरीके से की थी पढ़ाई खतम करते ही नौकरी लग गयी अमेरिका में फिर वहां की PR भी मिल गयी

शर्मा : वह सब मुझे पता है

केशव : जिस लड़की से शादी हुई वह भी तकरीबन लड़के के जैसी ही थी

शर्मा : जी हाँ मुझे पता है

केशव : तो शर्मा जी दोनों बढ़िया तरीके से ज़िंदगी गुजरते रहे जब तक की ज़िंदगी समस्या रहित थी

शर्मा : तो अब क्या समस्या आ गयी थी

केशव : लड़के को कैंसर हो गया था

शर्मा : ओह अच्छा मुझे पता नहीं था परन्तु कैंसर का इलाज तो है न क्या आखिरी स्टेज पर पहुँच गया था

केशव : नहीं सीरियस था परन्तु ऐसा नहीं है की इलाज़ नहीं हूँ सकता था परन्तु पति पत्नी दोनों डिप्रेशन का शिकार हो गए

शर्मा : ओह

केशव : और फिर लड़के को डॉक्टर ने चलने फिरने से भी मन कर दिया इसीलिए उसको नौकरी भी छोड़नी पड़ी जिसने आग में घी का काम किया

शर्मा : ओह

केशव : और दोनों मैं से कोई भी इन परेशानियों के लिए तयार नहीं किया गया था इसीलिए दोनों ने डिप्रेशन का शिकार होकर ऐसा कदम उठा लिया

शर्मा : आप ठीक कह रहे है केशव जी आदमी को आसान ज़िंदगी पसंद है परन्तु उसे अपने बच्चों को मुश्किलों के लिए भी तयार करना चाहिए

केशव : बिलकुल चलिए मैं भी चलता हूँ आपके साथ मुन्ना को हमारी जरूरत है

शर्मा : आइये चलते है

Men's Panchtantra – Life

एक बहुत ब्रिलियंट लड़का था. सारी जिंदगी फर्स्ट आया. साइंस में हमेशा 100% स्कोर किया.

अब ऐसे लड़के आम तौर पर इंजिनियर बनने चले जाते हैं, सो उस का भी सिलेक्शन IIT चेन्नई में हो गया। वहां से B. Tech किया और वहां से आगे पढ़ने अमेरिका चला गया और यूनिवर्सिटी ऑफ़ कैलिफ़ोर्निया से MBA किया.

अब इतना पढ़ने के बाद तो वहां अच्छी नौकरी मिल ही जाती है. उस ने वहां भी हमेशा टॉप ही किया।

वहीं नौकरी करने लगा। 5 बेडरूम का घर उस के पास। शादी यहाँ चेन्नई की ही एक बेहद खूबसूरत लड़की से हुई।

एक आदमी और क्या मांग सकता है अपने जीवन में? पढ़ लिख के इंजिनियर बन गए, अमेरिका में सेटल हो गए, मोटी तनखाह की नौकरी, बीवी बच्चे, सुख ही सुख।

लेकिन दुर्भाग्य वश आज से चार साल पहले उस ने वहीं अमेरिका में, सपरिवार आत्महत्या कर ली। अपनी पत्नी और बच्चों को गोली मार कर खुद को भी गोली मार ली।

What went wrong?

आखिर ऐसा क्या हुआ, गड़बड़ कहाँ हुई??

ये कदम उठाने से पहले उस ने बाकायदा अपनी wife से discuss किया, फिर एक लम्बा suicide नोट लिखा और उस में बाकायदा अपने इस कदम को justify किया और यहाँ तक लिखा कि यही सबसे श्रेष्ठ रास्ता था इन परिस्थितियों में।

उन के इस केस को और उस suicide नोट को California Institute of Clinical Psychology ने 'What went wrong?' जानने के लिए study किया।

पहले कारण क्या था, suicide नोट से और मित्रों से पता किया। अमेरिका की आर्थिक मंदी में उस की नौकरी चली गयी. बहुत दिन खाली बैठे रहे। नौकरियां ढूँढते रहे फिर अपनी तनखाह कम करते गए और फिर भी जब नौकरी न मिली, मकान की किश्त जब टूट गयी, तो सड़क पर आने की नौबत आ गयी।

कुछ दिन किसी पेट्रोल पम्प पर तेल भरा बताते हैं। साल भर ये सब बर्दाश्त किया और फिर पति पत्नी ने अंत में खुदकुशी कर ली।

इस case study को ऐसे conclude किया है experts ने: This man was programmed for success but he was not trained, how to handle failure.

यह व्यक्ति सफलता के लिए तो तैयार था, पर इसे जीवन में ये नहीं सिखाया गया कि असफलता का सामना कैसे किया जाए।

अब उस के जीवन पर शुरू से नज़र डालते हैं। पढ़ने में बहुत तेज़ था, हमेशा फर्स्ट ही आया।

ऐसे बहुत से Parents को मैं जानता हूँ जो यही चाहते हैं कि बस उन का बच्चा हमेशा फर्स्ट ही आये, कभी भी कोई गलती न हो उस से। गलती करना तो यूँ मानो कोई बहुत बड़ा पाप कर दिया और इसके लिए वो सब कुछ करते हैं, हमेशा फर्स्ट आने के लिए।

फिर ऐसे बच्चे चूँकि पढ़ाकू कुछ ज्यादा होते हैं सो खेल-कूद, घूमना-फिरना, लड़ाई-झगडा, मार-पीट, ऐसे पंगों का मौका कम मिलता है बेचारों को।

12th कर के निकले तो इंजीनियरिंग कॉलेज का बोझ लद गया बेचारे पर। वहां से निकले तो MBA और अभी पढ़ ही रहे थे की मोटी तनख्वाह की नौकरी। अब मोटी तनख्वाह तो बड़ी जिम्मेवारी, यानी बड़े-बड़े targets.

कमबख्त ये दुनिया, बड़ी कठोर है और ये ज़िदगी, अलग से इम्तहान लेती है। आप की कॉलेज की डिग्री और मार्कशीट से कोई मतलब नहीं उसे वहां कितने नंबर लिए कोई फर्क नहीं पड़ता।

ये ज़िदगी अपना अलग question paper सेट करती है और सवाल, सब out ऑफ़ syllabus होते हैं, टेढ़े-मेढ़े, ऊट-पटाँग और रोज़ इम्तहान लेती है। कोई डेट sheet नहीं।

एक अंग्रेजी उपन्यास में एक किस्सा पढ़ा था। एक मेमना अपनी माँ से दूर निकल गया। आगे जा कर पहले तो भैंसों के झुण्ड से घिर गया। उनके पैरों तले कुचले जाने से बचा किसी तरह। अभी थोड़ा ही आगे बढ़ा था कि एक सियार उस की तरफ झपटा। किसी तरह झाड़ियों में घुस के जान बचाई तो सामने से भेड़िये आते दिखे। बहुत देर वहीं झाड़ियों में दुबका रहा।

किसी तरह माँ के पास वापस पहुंचा तो बोला, माँ, वहां तो बहुत खतरनाक जंगल है। Mom, there is a jungle out there.

इस खतरनाक जंगल में ज़िन्दा बचे रहने की ट्रेनिंग बच्चों को अवश्य दीजिये।

बच्चों को पढ़ाई के साथ-साथ संस्कार भी देना ज़रूरी है, हर परिस्थिति को खुशी खुशी धैर्य के साथ झेलने की क्षमता और उस से उबरने का ज्ञान और विवेक बच्चों में होना ज़रूरी है। माता पिता सफल जीवन के लिए तितिक्षा की शिक्षा अवश्य दें।

Indian Society – Episode 002

Direction of Feminism in India

The society in which we live is neither good nor bad. Sometime we see a good face of society and sometime we find a very different face. What we want to say is the society is neither good nor bad, but we all can agree at one point that the society is biased against one particular gender.

Anonymous : Society is biased against women ?

Men's HUB : No dear that is where we disagree.

Anonymous : We can discuss a lot of incident where society looks anti women.

Men's HUB : Yes we can discuss a lot of incidents where society looks anti men too.

Anonymous : What does that mean ?

Men's HUB : I mean dear we are a huge society where everyday a lot happen. Just for example consider this story shared by someone on social media.

Anonymous : And What is this about ?

Men's HUB : This story is about how a women consider a moment dangerous for her brother/friend and she accept the wrong direction of feminism going in india.

Anonymous : Anything else ?

Men's HUB : Yes it is also the clear indication about the men's right violation when it comes to women's right not only at social level but also at legal level.

What is something that you just realized?

An incident on this day changed our thinking towards society, So coming to the story.

Manish (one of my best friends) and I were travelling to Connaught Place in Delhi, via Delhi Metro's Blue Line. People from Delhi can relate how tough it is to get in or out at Rajiv Chowk metro station. So we were all prepared to face another world war with commuters.

But as soon as we left Barakhamba Road,(the station just before Rajiv Chawk) the train stopped with sudden brakes and everyone got jerked forward. I was in a safe position as always but my friend and his hands landed up in the wrong place. He pushed one girl who was standing in opposite direction and the girl got stuck against the Metro's gate and her chest was pressed by my friend's hand.

I could see my friend sweating as all this happened in just 20 seconds still I could see the fear on his face. I was sure that one tight slap was waiting for my brother. Before I could say anything he started saying "sorry sorry sorry, it was by mistake". He started explaining himself. We all know the condition of Delhi, people don't wait for a second to attack someone if he is found molesting a girl. But sometimes the situation is different so was that day. Everyone was giving strange look to my friend as if he had committed a crime. But the only thing which he did was something like below and that too by mistake.

The girl was somewhere between 22–26 years old. The train started moving slowly and the girl reaction was something which we could not believe as me and my friend had known that feminism is taking the wrong path in India.

The girl said, " Hey cool down. It's okay. I understand. Agar Mai tumhare jagah Hoti to Mai bhi gir jaati" she meant to say, " if I were at your place then I could have also fallen".

I was surprised and so was my friend. By the time train had already reached Rajiv Chowk and as I said the crowd was something like this.

We could not say anything to her as both of us were surprised and we all got off the train. I was trying to figure out where that girl went but the crowd didn't allow us. We went to the park situated just above the station, thinking deeply about the incident. "Yes, all women are not the same. There exist some who don't use their rights in a wrong way and that too in a city like Delhi".

This incident completely changed our thinking about girls. Not everyone will take you wrongly; some understandable and gentle ones are also there....

Thanks for your Time
